

August 6, 2005

Dear F.C.C.

I would like to express my desire to continue the Morse Code Requirement for Amateur Radio Licensing. I believe it is part of our heritage and a viable mode of communication. It will surely die and the quality of operators will decline as well. We owe it to the pioneers of Amateur Radio to preserve the morse code. You never know when it might actually be needed as a communication means in a disaster situation.

Thank you,

Danny Richards